SHAKESPEARE
FESTIVAL

NEW! SHAKESPEARE'S MUSICIANS

Grades 6-12 July 6-24 (9 a.m.-noon)

This musical theatre intensive allows students to focus on skills such as voice, Broadway dance, physical character work, and musical theatre solo and partner scene work. Students will collaborate as a company to produce an original musical revue of songs from musicals based on Shakespeare's plays.

$280 per student

FIND YOUR CAMP

NEW! ON-CAMERA INTENSIVE

Grades 8-12 June 22-26 (1-4 p.m.)

Students will learn basic on-camera acting techniques from professional actor and School of Theatre and Dance faculty member David Prete. Student scenes will be filmed in class to learn the differences between acting for the stage and acting for film and television.

$150 per student

NEW! SHAKESPEARE'S CARDBOARD FAIRYTALES

Grades 3-6 June 15-26 (9 a.m.-noon)

ISF and Peachtree Theatre's Demetri Corbin, professional actor and current Master's in Theatre Studies candidate, present this fanciful and creative camp. Students will write a script, design and craft the scenery, and rehearse the play for a final performance for parents.

$200 per student

SHAKESPEARE'S APPRENTICES

Grades 6-8 July 6-24 (1-5 p.m.)

This theatre intensive allows students to gain more focused experience in a variety of theatre skills (such as character work, stage combat, movement and voice). Students will be cast in and perform Romeo To Go by Jonathan Rand.

$300 per student

SHAKESPEARE'S PLAYERS

Grades 9-12 July 6-24 (1-5 p.m.)

This theatre intensive allows high school students to work on skills, such as Shakespeare's text, physical character work, stage combat, movement and voice, while collaborating as a company to produce a one-act version of Shakespeare's bloody and suspenseful Macbeth. $300 per student
